Geert Lovink

The Digital City

Monday 3 November 6.30pm at ACCA

Dutch media theorist and critic Geert Lovink works as a media and internet advisor for artists and community organisations. The Digital City (De Digitale Stad), a metaphorical city with its own language, geography and electronic highway, aims to challenge the possibilities and impossibilities of the Internet.

Geert Lovink lectures in media theory and is co-founder of The Digital City, Freenet and a member of Adilkno (Foundation for the Advancement of Illegal Knowledge). Among his publications are Empire of Images and Cracking the Movement.

Geert Lovink's visit to Australia is part of Code Red, presented by the Australian Network for Art and Technology (ANAT) in association with the Performance Space. Supported by the New Media Arts Fund of the Australia Council, the federal government arts funding and advisory body with additional support from the Goethe Institute.
