biennale of sydney outreach program

louise dompierre canadian curator

Louise Dompierre was, until recently, Director of The Power Plant Contemporary Art Gallery of Toronto, Canada's leading non-collecting contemporary arts institute. She is a strong believer in the need to immerse the viewer in the exhibition experience, and concerns central to her practice include new technologies and the need to place Canadian art in an international context.

Presented in conjunction with the 11th Biennale of Sydney EveryDay, and supported by Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade, Canada.
